AUDIT FINDINGS

NARRATIVE:

The audit of Ware State Prison was conducted on November 2-3, 2015 by Katherine Brown, Certified PREA auditor. The areas toured were a total of 28 housing units. There are 24 general population units and 4 Tier units or segregation unit, plus the kitchen, laundry, programs area, and work areas.

An entrance meeting was held with facility staff. The following people were in attendance: Melvin Butts, Assistant Statewide PREA Coordinator; Warden Tom Gramiak; John Boyett, Deputy Warden of Security; Juanita Crawford, Deputy Warden of Administration; Tommie Boggs, Food Service Director; Greg Kersey, Maintenance Engineer; Donald Reffie, Counselor; Calandra Watson, Business Manager; James K. Cox Chief of Security; Donnie Bussey, Lieutenant; Chris Tucker, Director of Nursing; Edwira Johnson, DWC; Patricia Hayes, PREA Compliance Manager; Dawn Marie Crane, Wardens' secretary.

Following the entrance meeting I toured Ware State Prison from 8:20 – 10:45. On the tour with me was Melvin Butts, Assistant Statewide PREA Coordinator and Warden Tom Gramiak .

I asked for an alpha listing of all inmates housed at Ware State Prison and randomly selected inmates from each housing unit as well as any inmates who were limited English speaking or had hearing/vision impairment to be interviewed. There were no hearing/vision impairment inmates there, I did interview three limited English speaking inmate using a staff interpreter. I interviewed a total of 28 inmates. I also asked for any inmate who was transgender/intersex, there were no transgender/intersex inmates. I asked for a shift roster and randomly selected 18 staff to interview. I also interviewed two inmates who filed alleged PREA reports. One was a tier inmate who has filed several PREA incidents. All have been basically the same allegations against staff members and all have been unfounded. After interviewing him he confirmed to me that all his allegations have been false and he did it as retaliation against staff for him being locked down. There were two other inmates that had filed a lot of the complaints but they had been transferred and was not available for interviews.

There were 117 sexual assault/harassment allegation cases, all relatively recent (within the past year) 104 had been unfounded; 1 substantiated; 11 unsubstantiated and 1 referred to OCI. Most of the complaints come from the Tier Unit. These inmates are in lockdown and are using PREA as a retaliatory strategy against the officers. All these are on camera and most have been unfounded based on camera evidence. The facility believes the Tier inmates use this as a way to get out of segregation if only for a short time.

DESCRIPTION OF FACILITY CHARACTERISTICS:

Ware State Prison is located at 3620 Harris Road, Waycross GA. It is a close custody facility that houses inmates who have behavioral/management issues. The goal of this facility is to take an inmate who is disruptive and modify their behavior so that they may eventually return to the general population of a lower security institution. Ware state Prison also acts as a release site for sex offenders. Currently the facility can hold 1,546 adult males. Inmate are housed in either an open dormitory or in double cells. If the inmate is difficult to manage or had safety and security concerns they may be housed in segregation. It consists of twelve housing units with 50 double cells each. Infirmary has 12 beds. Segregations has 150 beds. A Fast Track Unit contains four dormitories with 54 beds each. Old Ware as it is called was built in the 1940's and consists of 112 beds then there is the newest addition which was added in 1989 and consists of four dorms for total of 256 beds. This facility also houses a C.E.R.T. Team, Tactical Squad, Canine Unit and a Fire Station.

Reviewed GDOC SOP 208.06 IV A. 3; SOP II. A. 07-0012; Staffing Plan; Post Assignments and annual review. Based on interview with Warden; PREA Compliance Manager and PREA Coordinator.

Georgia Department of Corrections has developed, documented, and made its best efforts to comply on a regular basis with a staffing plan that provides for adequate levels of staffing and uses video monitoring, to protect inmates against sexual abuse.

In circumstances where the staffing plan was not complied with, Ware State Prison documented and justified all deviations from the plan.

Georgia Department of Corrections completes an annual review, in consultation with the PREA coordinator required by § 115.11, to assess, determine, and document whether adjustments are needed.

Exceeds Standard (substantially exceeds requirement of standard)

X Meets Standard (substantial compliance; complies in all material ways with the standard for the relevant review period)

Does Not Meet Standard (requires corrective action)

Auditor comments, including corrective actions needed if does not meet standard

Reviewed GDOC SOP 208.06 IV A. 4. (a-c).

There is currently 1 youthful inmate housed at Ware State Prison in the Tier Unit. The youthful inmate is housed alone and only comes out when staff are present and goes to programs and recreation by himself.

§115.15 Limits to cross gender viewing and searches

- Meets Standard (substantial compliance; complies in all material ways with the standard for the relevant review period)
- Does Not Meet Standard (requires corrective action)

Auditor comments, including corrective actions needed if does not meet standard

Reviewed GDOC SOP 208.06 IV A. 5. (a-g) and SOP II. B. 01-0013 and lesson plan.

Ware State Prison does not conduct cross-gender strip searches or cross-gender visual body cavity searches (meaning a search of the anal or genital opening) except in exigent circumstances. In the event a cross gender search is done Ware State Prison documents all cross-gender strip searches and cross-gender visual body cavity searches.

Ware State Prison has policies and procedures that enable inmates to shower, perform bodily functions, and change clothing without nonmedical staff of the opposite gender viewing their breasts, buttocks, or genitalia, except in exigent circumstances or when such viewing is incidental to routine cell checks. Such policies and procedures require staff of the opposite gender to announce their presence when entering an inmate housing unit. The opposite gender announcement is being done sporadically. The auditor discussed with the Warden the need for further training on when this announcement needs to be done. I was not announced in every unit I went in. When staff and inmates were interviewed all confirmed announcements were being made, however the auditor was not announced. It was explained this announcement needs to be done for everyone entering the housing units.

Transgender/intersex inmates are housed at Augusta State Prison based on GDC classification plan.

Georgia Department of Corrections trains security staff in how to conduct cross-gender pat-down searches, and searches of transgender and intersex inmates, in a professional and respectful manner, and in the least intrusive manner possible, consistent with security needs.

§115.16 Inmates with disabilities and limited English speaking

Georgia Department of Corrections takes appropriate steps to ensure inmates with disabilities (including, for example, inmates who are deaf or hard of hearing, those who are blind or have low vision, or those who have intellectual, psychiatric, or speech disabilities), have an equal opportunity to participate in or benefit from all aspects of Georgia Department of Corrections' efforts to prevent, detect, and respond to sexual abuse and sexual harassment, including steps to provide interpreters who can interpret effectively, accurately, and impartially, both receptively and expressively, using any necessary specialized vocabulary.

Georgia Department of Corrections does not rely on inmate interpreters, inmate readers, or other types of inmate assistants except in limited circumstances where an extended delay in obtaining an effective interpreter could compromise the inmate's safety. None have been used or required.

Reviewed GDOC SOP 208.06 IV D. 1 (a-h); Victim/Aggressor Classification Rating; PREA Sexual Victim/Sexual Aggressor Classification Screening. Based on interview with random inmates and intake staff responsible for screening. Only limited staff has access to the risk screening form only Medical, Case Managers and Warden.

All inmates are assessed during an intake screening and upon transfer to another facility for risk of being sexually abused by other inmates or sexually abusive toward other inmates.

Intake screenings take place immediately upon arrival at Ware State Prison.

Ware State Prison uses an objective screening instrument.

The intake screening considers, at a minimum, the following criteria to assess inmates for risk of sexual victimization:

- (1) Whether the inmate has a mental, physical, or developmental disability;
- (2) The age of the inmate;
- (3) The physical build of the inmate;
- (4) Whether the inmate has previously been incarcerated;
- (5) Whether the inmate's criminal history is exclusively nonviolent;
- (6) Whether the inmate has prior convictions for sex offenses against an adult or child;
- (7) Whether the inmate is or is perceived to be gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, intersex, or gender nonconforming;
- (8) Whether the inmate has previously experienced sexual victimization;
- (9) The inmate's own perception of vulnerability; and
- (10) Whether the inmate is detained solely for civil immigration purposes.

The initial screening considers prior acts of sexual abuse, prior convictions for violent offenses, and history of prior institutional violence or sexual abuse, as known to Georgia Department of Corrections, in assessing inmates for risk of being sexually abusive.

Within 30 days from the inmate's arrival at Ware State Prison, Ware State Prison reassesses the inmate's risk of victimization or abusiveness based upon any additional, relevant information received by Ware State Prison since the intake screening.

An inmate's risk level is reassessed when warranted due to a referral, request, incident of sexual abuse, or receipt of additional information that bears on the inmate's risk of sexual victimization or abusiveness.

Inmates are not disciplined for refusing to answer, or for not disclosing complete information in response to, questions asked.

Georgia Department of Corrections implements appropriate controls on the dissemination within Ware State Prison of responses to questions asked pursuant to this standard in order to ensure that sensitive information is not exploited to the inmate's detriment by staff or other inmates.

Based on the screening being done immediately upon arrival I find Ware State Prison exceeds in this standard.

No inmates have been placed in involuntary segregation housing due to a risk of victimization.

Inmates at high risk for sexual victimization are not placed in involuntary segregated housing unless an assessment of all available alternatives has been made, and a determination has been made that there is no available alternative means of separation from likely abusers.

Inmates placed in segregated housing for this purpose have access to programs, privileges, education, and work opportunities to the extent possible. If Ware State Prison restricts access to programs, privileges, education, or work opportunities, Ware State Prison documents the opportunities that have been limited, the duration of the limitation; and the reasons for such limitations.

Ware State Prison assigns such inmates to involuntary segregated housing only until an alternative means of separation from likely abusers can be arranged, and such an assignment does not ordinarily exceed a period of 30 days. If involuntary segregated housing assignment is made Ware State Prison clearly documents the basis for Ware State Prison’s concern for the inmate’s safety; and the reason why no alternative means of separation can be arranged. Every 30 days a review is performed to determine whether there is a continuing need for separation from the general population.

Reviewed GDC 208.06 IV. E. 1.2. and SOP IIB05-0001; reviewed two grievances submitted.

Georgia Department of Corrections does not impose a time limit on when an inmate may submit a grievance regarding an allegation of sexual abuse.

Georgia Department of Corrections does not require an inmate to use any informal grievance process, or to otherwise attempt to resolve with staff, an alleged incident of sexual abuse.

Georgia Department of Corrections ensures that an inmate who alleges sexual abuse may submit a grievance without submitting it to a staff member who is the subject of the complaint, and such grievance is not referred to a staff member who is the subject of the complaint.

Georgia Department of Corrections issues a final agency decision on the merits of any portion of a grievance alleging sexual abuse within 90 days of the initial filing of the grievance.

Third parties, including fellow inmates, staff members, family members, attorneys, and outside advocates, are permitted to assist inmates in filing requests for administrative remedies relating to allegations of sexual abuse, and are also be permitted to file such requests on behalf of inmates.

Georgia Department of Corrections has established procedures for the filing of an emergency grievance when the inmate is subject to a substantial risk of imminent sexual abuse.

After receiving an emergency grievance alleging a substantial risk of imminent sexual abuse, Georgia Department of Corrections immediately forwards the grievance (or any portion thereof that alleges the substantial risk of imminent sexual abuse) to a level of review at which immediate corrective action is taken, and provides an initial response within 48 hours, and issues a final agency decision within 5 calendar days. The initial response and final agency decision documents Georgia Department of Corrections' determination whether the inmate is in substantial risk of imminent sexual abuse and the action taken in response to the emergency grievance.

Georgia Department of Corrections may discipline an inmate for filing a grievance related to alleged sexual abuse only where Georgia Department of Corrections demonstrates that the inmate filed the grievance in bad faith.

Georgia Department of Corrections requires all staff to report immediately and according to agency policy any knowledge, suspicion, or information regarding an incident of sexual abuse or sexual harassment that occurred in a facility, whether or not it is part of Georgia Department of Corrections; retaliation against inmates or staff who reported such an incident; and any staff neglect or violation of responsibilities that may have contributed to an incident or retaliation.

Apart from reporting to designated supervisors or officials, staff does not reveal any information related to a sexual abuse report to anyone other than to the extent necessary, as specified in agency policy, to make treatment, investigation, and other security and management decisions.

If the alleged victim is considered a youthful offender or vulnerable adult under a State or local vulnerable person's statute, Georgia Department of Corrections reports the allegation to the designated State or local services agency under applicable mandatory reporting laws.

Ware State Prison reports all allegations of sexual abuse and sexual harassment, including third-party and anonymous reports, to Ware State Prison's designated investigators.

Reviewed GDOC SOP 208.06 IV F. 6 (a-e); Local Procedure Directive; and Offender Right to Know signed form. Based on interview with agency head, warden, and designated staff member with monitoring retaliation.

Georgia Department of Corrections has a policy to protect all inmates and staff who report sexual abuse or sexual harassment or cooperate with sexual abuse or sexual harassment investigations from retaliation by other inmates or staff, and designate which staff members or departments are charged with monitoring retaliation.

Georgia Department of Corrections has multiple protection measures, such as housing changes or transfers for inmate victims or abusers, removal of alleged staff or inmate abusers from contact with victims, and emotional support services for inmates or staff that fear retaliation for reporting sexual abuse or sexual harassment or for cooperating with investigations.

For at least 90 days following a report of sexual abuse, Georgia Department of Corrections monitors the conduct and treatment of inmates or staff who reported the sexual abuse and of inmates who were reported to have suffered sexual abuse to see if there are changes that may suggest possible retaliation by inmates or staff, and act promptly to remedy any such retaliation. There is periodic status checks performed. Items Georgia Department of Corrections should monitor include any inmate disciplinary reports, housing, or program changes, or negative performance reviews or reassignments of staff. Georgia Department of Corrections continues such monitoring beyond 90 days if the initial monitoring indicates a continuing need.

If any other individual who cooperates with an investigation expresses a fear of retaliation, Georgia Department of Corrections takes appropriate measures to protect that individual against retaliation.

Reviewed GDOC SOP 208.06 IV G. 3; Staff Training Roster; NIC Certificate and In Service Training Record. Based on interview with investigative staff

When Georgia Department of Corrections conducts its own investigations into allegations of sexual abuse and sexual harassment, it does so promptly, thoroughly, and objectively for all allegations, including third-party and anonymous reports.

Where sexual abuse is alleged, Georgia Department of Corrections uses investigators who have received special training in sexual abuse investigations.

Investigators gather and preserve direct and circumstantial evidence, including any available physical and DNA evidence and any available electronic monitoring data; interview alleged victims, suspected perpetrators, and witnesses; and review prior complaints and reports of sexual abuse involving the suspected perpetrator.

When the quality of evidence appears to support criminal prosecution, Georgia Department of Corrections conducts compelled interviews only after consulting with prosecutors as to whether compelled interviews may be an obstacle for subsequent criminal prosecution.

The credibility of an alleged victim, suspect, or witness is assessed on an individual basis and is not determined by the person's status as inmate or staff. No agency requires an inmate who alleges sexual abuse to submit to a polygraph examination or other truth-telling device as a condition for proceeding with the investigation of such an allegation.

Administrative investigations include efforts to determine whether staff actions or failures to act contributed to the abuse; and are documented in written reports that contain a thorough description of physical, testimonial, and documentary evidence, the reasoning behind credibility assessments, and investigative facts and findings, and attaches copies of all documentary evidence where feasible.

Substantiated allegations of conduct that appears to be criminal are referred for prosecution to GDC Professional Standards unit.

Georgia Department of Corrections retains all written reports for as long as the alleged abuser is incarcerated or employed by Georgia Department of Corrections, plus five years.

The departure of the alleged abuser or victim from the employment or control of Ware State Prison or agency does not provide a basis for terminating an investigation.

Following an investigation into an inmate's allegation that they suffered sexual abuse in an agency facility, Georgia Department of Corrections informs the inmate as to whether the allegation has been determined to be substantiated, unsubstantiated, or unfounded.

If Georgia Department of Corrections did not conduct the investigation, it requests the relevant information from the investigative agency in order to inform the inmate.

Following an inmate's allegation that a staff member has committed sexual abuse against the inmate, Georgia Department of Corrections subsequently informs the inmate (unless Georgia Department of Corrections has determined that the allegation is unfounded) whenever the staff member is no longer posted within the inmate's unit; the staff member is no longer employed at Ware State Prison; Georgia Department of Corrections learns that the staff member has been indicted on a charge related to sexual abuse within Ware State Prison; or Georgia Department of Corrections learns that the staff member has been convicted on a charge related to sexual abuse within Ware State Prison.

Staff is subject to disciplinary sanctions up to and including termination for violating agency sexual abuse or sexual harassment policies. Termination is the presumptive disciplinary sanction for staff who has engaged in sexual abuse.

Disciplinary sanctions for violations of agency policies relating to sexual abuse or sexual harassment (other than actually engaging in sexual abuse) are commensurate with the nature and circumstances of the acts committed, the staff member's disciplinary history, and the sanctions imposed for comparable offenses by other staff with similar histories.

All terminations for violations of agency sexual abuse or sexual harassment policies, or resignations by staff who would have been terminated if not for their resignation, are reported to law enforcement agencies, unless the activity was clearly not criminal, and to any relevant licensing bodies.

Inmates are subject to disciplinary sanctions pursuant to a formal disciplinary process following an administrative finding that the inmate engaged in inmate-on-inmate sexual abuse or following a criminal finding of guilt for inmate-on-inmate sexual abuse.

Sanctions are commensurate with the nature and circumstances of the abuse committed, the inmate's disciplinary history, and the sanctions imposed for comparable offenses by other inmates with similar histories.

The disciplinary process considers whether an inmate's mental disabilities or mental illness contributed to his behavior when determining what type of sanction, if any, should be imposed.

All mental health services are provided at Valdosta State Prison either by taking the inmate there or through the use of Tele med.

Georgia Department of Corrections disciplines an inmate for sexual contact with staff only upon a finding that the staff member did not consent to such contact.

A report of sexual abuse made in good faith based upon a reasonable belief that the alleged conduct occurred does not constitute falsely reporting an incident or lying, even if an investigation does not establish evidence sufficient to substantiate the allegation.

Georgia Department of Corrections prohibits all sexual activity between inmates and may discipline inmates for such activity.
